11. Creation and Rural Life (cont'd)

7. Rural life develops a man's dignity and personality: First of all, farm life supplies an environment in which the sacramental graces of matrimony can take fruitful effect. The purpose of matrimony is not only the procreation but also the rearing and education of children. The farm provides an ideal setting for the development of the family. Unlike in the large cities, where parents are often away from home at work, here the whole family works as a unit. Here the children grow up under constant parental guidance, direction and training. In fact, the farm might be called the only and last stronghold of the family - and of religion.

Secondly, the farmer enjoys independence, freedom and self-respect - attributes which are of the very essence of human personality. He is not an insignificant unit in an army of propertyless city workers, but looks with pride and satisfaction on the fruitful soil which he cultivates and which is his own. When hard times come, and dejected city dwellers begin to take their place in the bread lines, he can go to his larder for the good things which he has providentially stored away.

Finally, the development of all one's faculties, which contributes so powerfully to the dignity of the human person, is especially facilitated by farm life. Few vocations demand so much knowledge, skill and experience as farming does. A farmer must know his seeds and soils, his poultry and his cattle, his tools and his machinery, his markets and his investments. A farmer must be, as some one has so well said, "not merely a man of brawn but also a man of brains."

12. Science and Faith

In his readings, the student occasionally comes across what are called "scientific" objections to faith. Science (biology, geology, paleontology, etc.) is said to contradict revelation (Scripture, tradition).

In order to have a genuine conflict between faith and science, the revealed truth must be infallibly defined and the scientific truth established beyond a shadow of a doubt. There are no cases on record where these two conditions are verified in a so-called conflict of faith and science. What is sometimes considered as an infallibly defined truth is in reality a matter of free discussion among scripturists and the theologians; what is regarded as a scientific truth is in fact only a hypothesis and theory.

FSSP General Chapter is taking place from Jul 3-18. Held every 6 years, the Chapter is an international meeting at which elected representatives make crucial decisions about the future growth of the FSSP. Please join with the members of the Fraternity in offering this daily prayer for the guidance of the Holy Ghost.

Veni Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Ghost, fill the hearts of Thy faithful and kindle in them the fire of Thy love.

V. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created.

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray. O God, Who taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that, by the gift of the same Spirit, we may be always truly wise, and ever rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please add to your prayer intentions that the Chapter be successful and in accordance with God's will for the FSSP.

V. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created.

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray. O God, Who taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that, by the gift of the same Spirit, we may be always truly wise, and ever rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jun 25 - Jul 3, a Veni Creator novena offered in preparation for the Chapter:

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
Vouchsafe within our souls to rest;
Come with Thy grace and heavenly aid
And fill the hearts which Thou hast made.
To Thee, the Comforter, we cry,
To Thee, the Gift of God Most High,
The Fount of life, the Fire of love,
The soul's Anointing from above.
The seven-fold gifts of grace are Thine,
O Finger of the Hand Divine;
True promise of the Father Thou,
Who dost the tongue with speech endow.
Thy light to every thought impart
And shed Thy love in every heart;
Our body's poor infirmity
With strength perpetual fortify.
Our mortal foe afar repel,
Grant us henceforth in peace to dwell;
If Thou be our preventing Guide,
No evil can our steps betide.
Make Thou to us the Father known,
Teach us th' Eternal Son to own,
And Thee, Whose Name we ever bless,
Of Both the Spirit, to confess.
All glory while the ages run,
Be to the Father and the Son,
Who rose from death; the same to Thee,
O Holy Ghost, eternally. Amen.

V. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created.

R. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let Us Pray. O God, Who taught the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant that, by the gift of the same Spirit, we may be always truly wise, and ever rejoice in His consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please add to your prayer intentions that the Chapter be successful and in accordance with God's will for the FSSP. May God reward you for your prayers and support of the Fraternity!
